

Pittsburgh and Its Countryside

visitpittsburgh.com

Pittsburgh and Its Countryside is full of surprising treasures.

Experience the excitement of the City and the picturesque, relaxed atmosphere of the Countryside. Whether a destination or a midway stop on the way through, you'll find great opportunities to play, discover and explore.

MILEAGE CHART

Cleveland, OH	.107 miles
Buffalo, NY	.165 miles
Columbus, OH	.205 miles
New York City, NY	.388 miles
Philadelphia, PA	.350 miles
Toronto, Ontario, Canada	.265 miles
Washington, DC	.290 miles
Baltimore, MD	.250 miles

Allegheny County & The City of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Be among the many who have discovered Pittsburgh to be the perfect combination of new and different meets tried-and-true. Named one of the Top Travel Destinations Worldwide (Frommer's), Pittsburgh offers a city full of affordable amenities groups expect – outstanding museums, a thriving Cultural District, eclectic neighborhoods – plus unique attractions that can't be found anywhere else. Whether it's the breathtaking view from PNC Park (voted the best ballpark in Major League Baseball), the original art found inside the Andy Warhol Museum or a ride up a mountain on our 130-year-old "Incline" (Funicular), Pittsburgh promises to deliver the unique experience all travelers hope for. Pittsburgh. What a pleasant surprise!

VisitPittsburgh

1-877-LOVE PGH (568-3744) • visitpittsburgh.com

imagine what you can do here.

For visitors from Canada

Armstrong County, Pennsylvania

Bisected by the mighty Allegheny River and located just 40 minutes northeast of Pittsburgh, Armstrong County has long been known for its beauty. This area is full of interesting and diverse activities...ROAM over the rolling hills, FISH in our breathtaking streams, HIKE & BIKE through the woodlands and trails, GOLF one of our many diverse courses, RIDE the rail at Kiski Junction, SEARCH for your family connections or find your own way to DISCOVER the wealth of recreation opportunities.

Let Armstrong County's outdoor tapestry be the backdrop for your next adventure! We invite you to COME, PLAY and DISCOVER...the heart of Western Pennsylvania.

Armstrong County Tourist Bureau
1-888-265-9954 • armstrongcounty.com

Beaver County, Pennsylvania

Located just minutes north of Pittsburgh, Beaver County is one of the region's best kept secrets. Here among the rolling hills, hardwood forests and river valleys you'll find historical treasures and modern-day amenities in a picturesque small-town setting. Our attractions include Old Economy Village, final home of the Harmony Society and the Riverfront Antique Mall, the largest antique mall in western PA. If you're into history and art, you'll enjoy visiting the Merrick Art Gallery, which houses more than 200 paintings and the Beaver Area Heritage Museum, located in a renovated 90-year-old railway freight station.

Beaver County Recreation & Tourism Department
1-800-342-8192 • visitbeavercounty.com

Butler County, Pennsylvania

Your adventure awaits in Butler County! Just 20 minutes north of Pittsburgh is a vast array of attractions ranging from Pennsylvania's only protected prairie at Jennings Environmental Center to a toy store housed in a stealth bomber! Explore Harmony, western Pennsylvania's first National Historic Landmark District, as well as the state's largest manmade lake at Moraine State Park. Butler County boasts two fine wineries, two exceptional breweries, a world-class glass blowing center, twelve golf courses and the Maridon Museum, the only museum in the region with a specific focus on Chinese and Japanese art and culture. Butler County's hotels, Bed & Breakfasts and campgrounds are waiting to welcome you to our corner of the world.

Butler County Tourism & Convention Bureau
1-866-856-8444 • VisitButlerCounty.com

Greene County, Pennsylvania

Bordered on the west and the south by West Virginia, Greene County's 576 square miles of rolling hills make up the cornerstone of the Keystone state, the only square corner of Pennsylvania. Western Greene County boasts nature trails shimmering with perfect specimens of rare and endangered biological species, plus the nation's longest continuously running country fair, The Jacktown Fair. The Waynesburg area hosts progressive industrial parks and technology corridors. Enjoy an Agricultural Tourism experience, whether it be a farm Bed & Breakfast or a visit to one of our wineries. The 40,000 citizens of Greene County invite you to join the sportsmen and others who visit our hunting lands, covered bridges, museums and libraries and numerous annual shows, fairs and festivals.

Greene County Tourist Promotion Agency
724-627-TOUR (8687) • greenecountytourism.org

Indiana County, Pennsylvania

Located in southwestern Pennsylvania at the foothills of the Allegheny Mountains, Indiana County is an excellent place to visit for its natural beauty and exciting attractions. Come visit Indiana County and explore our culture, history, heritage and recreation. "It's a Wonderful Life in Indiana County!" Visit the hometown of Jimmy Stewart, the Smicksburg Amish community, covered bridges, historic sights, over 60 miles of hiking and biking trails, festivals, parks, fishing, golfing and performing arts at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, all in "The Christmas Tree Capital of the World!" We invite you to experience our hometown hospitality and charm.

Indiana County Tourist Bureau
1-877-746-3426 • visitindianacountypa.org

Laurel Highlands, Pennsylvania

Pennsylvania's Laurel Highlands is a picturesque playground of opportunity! Southeast of Pittsburgh, our three-county region shares the beauty of majestic mountains. Experience major resorts, festivals, amusement and animal parks, living history including French and Indian War reenactments, heroic legacies, theatre, art and spectacular outdoor recreation. We welcome you to whitewater rafting, hiking-biking trails along the Great Allegheny Passage and exhilarating ski slopes including the largest ski resort in PA.

Compare architectural masterpieces, three Frank Lloyd Wright homes including Fallingwater®, dramatically cantilevered over a waterfall. It's about time...We invite you to "Explore our Seasons" and create wonderful memories!

Laurel Highlands Visitors Bureau
1-800-333-5661 x108 laurelhighlands.org

Lawrence County, Pennsylvania

Your back roads drive through Lawrence County will provide a glimpse into the life of the Old Order Amish, third largest in the nation. Be sure and stop in the villages of Volant and New Wilmington or walk the labyrinth at Villa Maria Retreat Center. You'll be awed by the architecture of the Scottish Rite Cathedral, the Victorian mansions and the nightly "fireworks" display in New Castle. Save time to ride on a camel at Living Treasures Animal Park, drive through the covered bridge at McConnell's Mill State Park, enjoy a theatrical performance at the New Castle Playhouse or canoe the Connoquenessing Creek near Ellwood City. Your Americana visit would not be complete without a stop at the Statues of Liberty in New Castle and Ellwood City.

Lawrence County Tourist Promotion Agency
1-888-284-7599 • VisitLawrenceCounty.com

Mercer County, Pennsylvania

Mercer County is located at the crossroads of Interstates 79 and 80 just one hour north of Pittsburgh and is known for great shopping and scenic countryside. Exciting shops include Reyers, the world's largest shoe store; Prime Outlets at Grove City, with over 140 shops; Kraynak's, with its beautiful Santa's Christmasland and Easter Bunny Lane; and The Winner, the world's largest off-price fashion store. Other attractions include Slovak Folk Crafts for beautiful handmade folk crafts; Wendell August Forge, where you can view handcrafted metal-workings; Victorian Mercer and Courthouse Square; and the ever-delicious chocolate candy factory tours at Daffin's or Philadelphia Candies.

Mercer County Convention & Visitors Bureau
1-800-637-2370 • visitmercercounty.com

Washington County, Pennsylvania

Just south of Pittsburgh, Washington County welcomes you to a prehistoric campsite and homes along American milestones. Our

"Dawn's Early Light" tour takes you from the ancient Meadowcroft Rockshelter through homes of the Whiskey Rebellion and the Underground Railroad, then transports you to the modern age to ride along at the Pennsylvania

Trolley Museum. At day's end, bring down the curtain at Little Lake Theatre, enjoy hot slots and fast trotters at The Meadows racino, or chalk up a victory with Wild Things baseball. It's all right here at the crossroads of Interstates 70 and 79 – the crossroads of mild and wild.

Washington County Tourism Promotion Agency
1-866-927-4969
visitwashingtoncountypa.com